

Jan Rybnicek

Counsel, Washington DC

T +1 202 777 4534

E jan.rybnicek@freshfields.com

Jan is an antitrust attorney at the law firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer in Washington, DC. He represents clients on a range of antitrust issues, including global merger review, civil antitrust litigation, and investigations before the US Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). Prior to re-joining Freshfields in 2015, Jan served as the principal attorney advisor to Commissioner Joshua D. Wright of the FTC, providing merger and conduct enforcement recommendations, developing legislation and policy initiatives with Congress, and drafting policy initiatives and speeches.

Jan has published numerous articles on antitrust law and policy. Jan was awarded the 2019 Antitrust Writing Award, a joint initiative between Concurrences Review and the George Washington University Law School, in the Best Business Article, General category for “Hipster Antitrust Meets Public Choice Economics: The Consumer Welfare Standard, Rule of Law, and Rent Seeking.” Jan also was awarded the 2017 Antitrust Writing Award in the Best Academic Article, Mergers category for his article “A Hedgehog in Fox’s Clothing? The Misapplication of GUPPI Analysis.”

Jan is an Adjunct Professor and Senior Fellow at the Global Antitrust Institute (GAI) at the Antonin Scalia Law School at George Mason University, where he teaches courses in antitrust law and economics. He contributed to GAI’s 2020 Report on the Digital Economy with a chapter analyzing antitrust and innovation in the United States and Europe. Jan is a member of the Federalist Society, where he serves on the Corporations, Securities & Antitrust Practice Group and Regulatory Transparency Project. Jan also is an active member of the ABA’s Antitrust Section and currently serves as an Editor for the Antitrust Law Journal, a leading publication for antitrust law, policy, and economics that is widely read by the antitrust bar.

Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer